There is a great deal of typhoid fever in Anadarko and under the poor sanitary conditions the physicians fear it may become epidemic.

There will be a box supper and social given under the auspices of the Dorcas Society Monday night in the Moore building on B street.

The Christain Sunday School will meet next Sunday at the Probate court room at 10 a. m. Come out and bring the children.

G. V. LIXING, Supt.

Our City Schools.

The public schools of Anadarko will open Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock a. m., grades and locations as follows:

High school and eighth grade in Baptist church; sixth and seventh on south side of B street east of Lawton track; fifth, fourth, third and second grades in the Morgan building on south side of public square; colored school north of main track.

The primary grades will not be opened for a week and possibly two as the buildings are not yet completed.

Children who can may bring a chair, but temporary seats of some kind will be provided for those who cannot. This is only a temporary arrangement—new desks will be placed as soon as they arrive.
